MA: for mature readers An erotic drama, with laughter and tears, his story will touch you, and have you touching yourself. Two worlds collide as Duke has to tell his boyfriend Mike his secret, that not only can he change into a black German Shepherd, but also that the Irish Setter he brought home from his family vacation is actually his lover Rourke. Rourke, a purist, his primitive people brutalized him for being gay. By becoming his Alpha, Duke rescued him, but to remain an Alpha Duke has to lead a pack. The machinations of the purists not only lead Duke to gather a pack, but also to take action that will have far-reaching ramifications. For Rourke's sake, Duke has to tell Mike his secret, to do so, they have to mate. Their love on the line, the real threat comes from within, as another competes for Duke's affection. Animal experimentation, a knife-wielding homophobe, the local whore, and an ailing grandparent, who has to pass along his gift of change, add to his troubles, but a hundred year old tortoise with a secret saves the day.
