

Shattered Blue (The Light Trilogy)

For Noa and Callum, being together is dangerous, even deadly. From the start, sixteen-year-old Noa senses that the mysterious transfer student to her Monterey boarding school is different. Callum unnerves and intrigues her, and even as she struggles through family tragedy, she's irresistibly drawn to him. Soon they are bound by his deepest secret: Callum is Fae, banished from another world after a loss hauntingly similar to her own. But in Noa's world, Callum needs a special human energy, Light, to survive; his body steals it through touch or a kiss. And Callum's not the only Fae on the hunt. When Callum is taken, Noa must decide: Will she sacrifice everything to save him? Even if it means learning their love may not be what she thought?

A fresh tale of human light and Fae desire, with a quick plot that counteracts its SHATTERED BLUE, by Lauren Horowitz was uniquely transformed into a already eagerly awaiting books two and three of the trilogy.
