

The Only One (The One Trilogy Book 3)

Mason Wallace left his hometown to live his dream: he had the perfect career, a gorgeous wife and a beautiful baby girl. He was on top of the world, until it all shattered with the sudden death of his wife. Now hes back in Georgia, running his bar and trying to take care of his family. And he needs all the help he can get. Rilla Grants never been farther than twenty miles from her familys farm. Her overprotective father wants her to marry their churchs youth pastor and settle down into the life hes chosen for her, but shes not sure thats what she wants anymore. Rillas chafing to make her own choices, and that includes starting her own PR business and maybe even moving off the farm, no matter how much her dad hates it. When Mason asks Rilla to work on some promotion for his bar, shes both excited and terrified. Excited, because its just the opportunity shes wanted, and terrified because Mason, with his intriguing hazel eyes and drool-worthy body, is the kind of guy who makes her knees weak and her heart pound. Hes the only one whos ever tempted Rilla to defy her family, and when she does just that by moving in to help take care of his daughter, theyre both forced to make a decision thatll change their lives forever. Sometimes love isnt the easy choice. Sometimes its the only one.
